

Music Ed Insights

Three Insights to take with you from... The State of Music Education Survey with Scott Lang

Insights:

- Learning loss is still measurable.
- Teacher morale is actually getting worse.
- Enrollment is down, but the retention situation is getting better.
- We will be dealing with Covid aftershocks until 2030.

Actions to take:

- Choose happiness.
- Be content with easier music.
- Enjoy the students you have.
- Find the blessings in the job you're doing.
- Beware comparison.
- Be empowered that you're not alone, and share these trends with your administration to advocate for yourself.
- Go further with your budgeting process- develop a five year financial plan, then extend the five-year plan concept to other parts of your program.
- Advocate for daily scheduled instruction rather than pull-out programs.
